"I agree that the valuation of the Paauhau plantation should remain as fixed by the last appeal court at $1,000,000, but I think that the valuation of the land is a valuation for the Paauhau plantation and it is also a valuation for the Paauhau plantation."

"The Paauhau case is the evidence of value of stock is entitled to be fixed by the court. The purchase made by the Paauhau plantation was for a certain reason and the company's corporation exhibit, which, in my opinion, is a very valuable and misleading, may have deceived purchasers and paved the way for stock juggling."

"To assess Paauhau at $1,000,000 and Wailuku at $1,000,000 is to do a wrong thing. The other is Paauhau and the case, or to the government in the valuation of the land, or to the other in such case."

"Discrimination between different taxpayers, unless on real differences in the business is even more objectionable than general excessive taxation."

"I am sure that the majority opinion while purporting to follow the majority rule does in fact repudiate the majority rule and to set aside the whole subject of sugar plantation valuation."

CALL MEETING OF JAPANESE TO DISCUSS I. W. W. PROPOSALS

The Higher Wage Association Leader to Preside at Asahi Theater Tonight

I. W. W. propagandists, and the Japanese of Honolulu will have a chance to hear each other tonight. A mass meeting of the Japanese has been called by Fred Makino, and other prominent Japanese of this city, for tonight, and the Asahi Theater on Maunaloa street has been secured for the gathering.

The main speakers of the evening will be Makino himself, who will preside, H. Tsurushima, of the Hawaiian-Japanese Daily Chronicle and K. Haga, of the Nippon Jiji. There will be other speakers, it is understood, and probably some one of the I. W. W. workers will present the side of that organization.

The meeting is called in order to meet the campaign which the "syndicalists" have been conducting among the Japanese workers on the Oahu sugar plantations and in the city itself, and it is reported that resolutions concerning the proposals of the I. W. W. leaders have been drafted and will be submitted to the mass meeting for consideration and decision.

Among the leading Japanese business men it is feared that this meeting will result in a re-opening of the but-recently closed warfare between the local Japanese dailies, which was settled about five days ago by a committee of arbitration, consisting of Dr. K. Haido, Rev. Y. Okumura, Rev. Y. Inamura, Y. Ishi, and T. Sato. This fight, which started over the strike called by the Higher Wage Association three years ago, has been revived, the Hawaii Shimpo taking the side of the employers and the other papers that of the association and the laborers. It is believed that Makino, one of the leaders of the association, and his associates, have been approached by the I. W. W. propagandists.

McManigal Tears Down Defense

INDIANAPOLIS, Indiana, November 15.—Continuing his campaign of dynamite cases today, Orin E. McManigal declared that he had dynamited the defense of the Lee Avenue Hotel, where he had placed a bomb, deliberately tore away one of the proposed gas pipes saying as he did so: "I want the whole building to go to hell this time."

Johnson Held For Assault

Congress Must Decide Fight

LOS ANGELES, Cal., November 15.—Owing to the fact that the Senate election laws of California are inadequate to force a recount of the votes of the contested precincts in the recent national election, it will be necessary to carry the fight between the Democrat and the Progressive elements in this State to the floor of the House of Representatives. This will be done as soon as possible after Congress convenes.

GOVERNOR SELLS AALA PROPERTY

Governor Frear has sold his Aala Park property, for which the Star-Bulletin reported yesterday he had been offered $27,500. Thus far the price is held confidential, as well as the purchaser's name, but it is believed Mr. Frear obtained something like the sum this paper said he held the place for—$30,000. The land is in the form of a hollow square, with two ends of it facing King street, which would make it unsuitable for a theater site unless the intervening lot could be added to it. It is said that the real estate broker who offered $27,500 was not the one that got the property.

At the time of the 1903 session of the Legislature, Senator Achi wanted to have this land added to Aala Park, but the Governor declined to entertain an offer out of delicacy about selling his property to the government. The area is 17,000 or 18,000 square feet.

PLANTATION LABOR AWARDED BONUS

Plantation day laborers on all the plantations have been awarded a bonus of 13 per cent. on their wages for the sugar year just ended. This is in pursuance of a promise of the planters' association at the first of the year, to give the labor a bonus calculated on the basis of the average price of sugar for the season.

Sailing from Hilo on Oct. 25 the American schooner Spokane is reported to have arrived at Port Gamble yesterday.

JOE COHEN IS NOW A FULL-FLEDGED DEMOCRAT

Joe Cohen, ex-Republican, independent in the last campaign, is now a full-fledged Democrat. He has signed the precinct roll of the Democratic club of the Seventh precinct, Fourth district, and his card was exhibited this morning by Col. E. H. F. Wolter to prove it. "Joe is going to the coast soon, so let's give him a chance to boost for Democracy," said Col. Wolter, and the Star-Bulletin representative assured him Joe is at liberty to boost for Democracy all he wants to.
